21st BATTALION DRILL TEAMS

A portion of the corps varsity Drill Team strutting their stuff during the march at the annual DeSoto Christmas Parade.

"Men, if I had a tavern-belly like that I'd put in for colonel's rank," jokes Mark Perks to Robert Bowman.

"It's not the drilling that gets to me, it's all the time from getting up to hitting the sack that bugs me." (Cadet Rodney Rose)

The handsome Lt. Stephan Kelley with his macho brother 190 Edward Kelley on usher duty at a school football game.

Who said there weren't any cute chics in JROTC? Tasha McGruder smilingly believes that while on duty at a school football game.

"One more groan out of you and I'll make it 50 pushups!" snaps Mark Perks to Ray Meek, who forgot his cap again!

CLASSROOM J.R.O.T.C.

Some of the cadets of Company "C" at "Parade Rest" awaiting the command for attention just prior to the bell sounding for roll call.

"O.K. Lieutenant Edwards — I got the procedure for the magnetic Declination Computation and the mechanics of intersection and resection in map reading, but what I don't get is how come I'm not an officer yet — I've been here for six weeks," says the ever ladylike Ghuntel Henke.

STUDENT INSTRUCTORS

"Now this here shootin' iron doesn't shoot — we just drill with it," notes Vincent Hawkins to the female cadets in the Arms Room.

Never underestimate the power of women — as seen by some first year male cadets under the control of their sergeants.

"Now that's the way it's done," announces Captain George Pointer as Toya Frazier leads off the demonstration in drill class.

"Mister, you've got enough dirt on that buckle to start your own garden — B out!" (Captain Moore inspecting Cadet Lavé Jackson)

"Either fatten up or learn how to cinch that belt mister," snaps Lieutenant Roxanne Eaglin at weekly inspection.

The "troops" loading on the bus for another activity.

21st BATTALION J.R.O.T.C.

Cadets Michael Schmitz and Charlene Hill admire the latest trophy won by the JROTC while Bennie Jackson compares it to previous trophies of the JROTC.

The troops happily studying Stephanie Simon as she "passes in review" in the hall.

Lieutenant Donna Starks providing a lovely picture between the colors.

"I wonder if my man is going to buy me some chicken McNuggets tonight?" muses Rhonda Green.

"Don't worry little lady I'll protect you from all these wolves," says Jeff Fowler to Alicia Evans as Rhonda Green just seems to enjoy the situation.

Captain George Pointer teaching his company cadets the finer points of Drill.

A typically hard training period in the corps when the men have to study military figures.

Ressie Yvette Gill

I, Ressie Yvette Gill, would like to dedicate my senior page to my lovely mother Mary LaBella Sowels and my sweetheart Joe A. Williams, Jr.

Mom, you have always been there when I needed you, you have helped me in understanding problems. Your support and trust for me is greatly appreciated. I would like to give special thanks to you for all you have done for me. May God bless you in many ways and keep you, also, healthy.

Joe, my very best friend in the world (whom I also love very much!), you are just so sweet and kind. I will always cherish your friendship. I am looking forward to our future together. Thank you for always knowing what to say to make me smile, being there when I need you, and for just being a remarkable young man.

My own grandparents are the most wonderful grandparents in the world, and I would like to thank them for all of their love and support.

The pictures on this page represent memories of the past.
Memories which will forever and ever last.

Now has come the time

That we must face the world of cruelty and crime.

The days will now get longer.

But we'll do nothing but get stronger.

All we need is the ability to strive.

At this time we can then say that the class of '84 was live.

AT DAY'S END

Is anybody happier because you passed his way?

Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today?

The day is almost over, and its toiling time is through;

Is there anyone to utter now a kindly word of you?

Can you say tonight, in parting with the day that's slipping fast,

That you helped a single brother of the many that you passed?

Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said? _____

Does the man whose hopes were fading,
now with courage look ahead?

Did you waste the day, or lose it? Was it well or sorely spent?

Did you leave a trail of kindness, or a scar of discontent?

As you close your eyes in slumber, do
You think that God will say,

"You have earned one more tomorrow
by the work you did today"?

—John Hall

I have enjoyed my 4 years here at Carter High School. I would never have enjoyed it without the love of my father, without the strain of my mother, without the love from my brothers and sisters, and especially the struggle and strain of my boyfriend, Greg.

I, Preston Jermain Crenshaw Jr., would like to dedicate this page to the most influential people in my life, my wonderful parents. I would like to say thanks Mom, Dad, and Chris for helping me through my high school career. As I look back on the past, it seems like it was only yesterday. But now I must look ahead into the future. My life has not ended with graduation from high school, but a whole new world is just beginning for me. It is now time to move into the adult world. And all I want to say is "Thanks." Thanks for your patience, love, and understanding. I would have never made it without you. Also, I would like to thank my friends and teachers. Thank you all for everything!

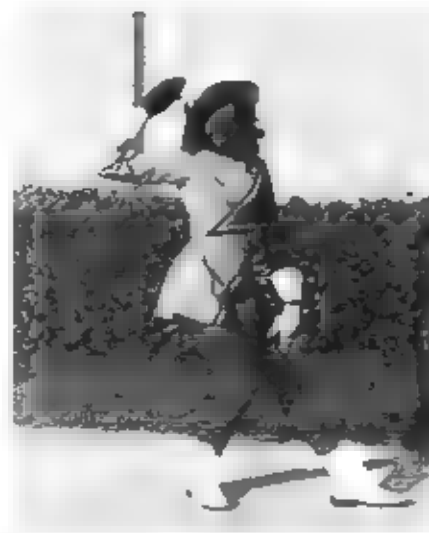

LISA LYNNETTE FOWLER

When I was a child, I thought as a child. I understood as a child. I spoke as a child. But when I became a senior, I put away childish things.

I dedicate this page to my mother who I love and admire.

Thanks Mom,
Lisa Fowler

Ms. TONI LYNN JOHNSON

I, Toni Lynn Johnson, dedicate my page to my parents, Alfred and Jeanye Johnson, who have helped me throughout my years of schooling.

It was a long twelve years ago, school had first started. And now that we are out of school, I am to be departed. First, there was elementary school when I was small and young. Although we were six years old, my journey had just begun. Second, there was middle school. I loved it very dear. Although this was the second stage, my journey was very near. Then there came high school: I loved it, and I always will, It's time to reach my goal in life. My journey has been fulfilled. Those twelve years are over (which I really did adore). I started in 1972 and ended in "84".

As I look back over the seventeen years of my life, I feel blessed to have had the support of friends and loved ones. It was through their continuous encouragement that helped make this dream a reality. Their guidance and advice along the way helped me to complete one of the many phases of my life.

I surrender a special thanks to my (only) sister, Sherry Taylor, who contributed her past skills and knowledge to enlighten my journey down a dark path.

Most of all I would like to take this opportunity and thank my sole foundation, my parents. They were always loving, patient, and supported me strongly in all my endeavors. It is through them that I am one step closer to completing my goals.

Thanks a million for everything.

Your loving daughter,
